Afready a few of the young ladies have appeared from the dry atmosphere of the same old, old select school, more will return soon the college young man resplendent with negligee attire and an air of wisdom, but ever ready for the vacation's diversions, will be here in all his glory-with all these forerunners, will surely follow the pleasures of the usual summer season.

To substantiate the fact that the coming of the young ladies portends a budding of social matters, might be mentioned the return of Miss Augusta Archbald, Miss Alice McLeod, Miss Ethel Boies and Miss Linen from Miss Master's school at Dobb's Ferry, N. Y. Miss Archbald has with her a friend, Miss Mabel Knowlton, of Freeport, Iil., and Miss Woolworth, of San-dusky, Onio, accompanied Miss Me-A luncheon was given by Miss Archbald yesterday in honor of Miss Knowlion. A small company was given by Colonel and Mrs. H. M. Boiss last evening in honor of Miss Boies' return.

The celebration of the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Barnes at their cozy residence on Monros avenue, on Wednesday evening, was among the pleasant social events of the week. The house was tastefully deco-rated with potted plants and blossoms and presented an inviting appearance throughout. Members of the Lawrence orchestra were stationed in the spacious half and discoursed sweet music during the evening for the edification of those who desired to enjoy the delights of the mazy dance. Elegant refreshments were served during the evening. The list of guests included many of the wedding party of a year ago, among the number being Dr. Kolb, of Philadelphia, who acted as groomsman at the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. Barnes, The affair was largely attended and was enjoyable in every detail.

At Pittston Thursday evening oc curred the wedding of Miss Mary Ellithorp, of that place, to H. W. Perrin, of Priladelphia. Mr. Perrin is in the coal trads and is well known in this city. The wedding was a quiet, home affair, and was attended only by the lamentate friends and relatives. immediate friends and relatives. M. B. Swan officiated. The brides-moids were Miss Gaines, of Chicago, and Miss Fenn, of West Pittston, E1ward Carpenter, of Wilkes-Barre, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Perrin will reside in Peiladelphia. Miss Clara Simpson, C. D. Simpson and Harry P. Simpson, of this city, were present.

NEWS NOTES FROM WALES.

LONDON, June 1 - The political atmosbere of Wales has been much disturbed y a revolt of four Welsh members, viz: Lloyd George, D. A. Thomas, Frank Ed-wards and Herbert Lewis, a quartette of thorough go-anead young Weishmen; thorough go-anend young Weishmen; Briefly their ground for action is that: "The ministers utterly refused to give us any pledge that they mean to press the discontablishment bill through this session." As opposed to this it is interesting to quote Lord Essebery's trenchant reply. The prime minister said: "All I can say is this, that if it is true that they do not trust our promises in the matter, if they do not believe that, as I confidently assert on this occasion and will again, I hope, before we meet the country, that we shall meet it with a measure of Welsh disestablishment passed through the house of commons. I cannot control its fate after it leaves the house of commons, [referring to the house of long of the rising sin the house of commons, [referring to the house of commons, [referring to the house of commons of the control of the c mons, [referring to the house of lords] I say if they don't believe in that pledge, if they don't believe in our honor and our honesty the sooner they carry their threats into effect the better I shall be pleased." Mr. Tom Ellis, M. P., chief Liberal whip and the most prominent Welsh member, has also given most definite pledges on behalf of the government, that the measure will be passed through the lower house. Wales is therefore. is, therefore, for the first time in the history of the Weish Liberal party, witnessing a spectacle of division, which happen-ing at a critical period, may retard the progress of the greatest Welsh measure of modern times. The revolting members, however, have entunsiastic supporters and vehement opponents in their protest against the ministers.

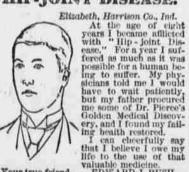

The death of the late John Roberts, New-town, is announced. The celebrated harp-ist was well known at all eisteddfedau, and upon the queen's visit to Wales in 1889 Mr. Roberts and his eleven sons played selections on their harps before her majesty, who was delighted with the exquisite Welsh music, Tomorrow thousands of churches in ur country will celebrate Children's Day. Most churches in our city have prepared special services for the occadon. Some organizations have so elaborate a programme that it was impossi-ble for them to get ready for tomorrow, so they have postponed the exercises one week. This day has been celebrated for many years, and is both in-spiring and instructive. The churches are decorated with flowers and foliage plants, and sometimes sweet singing birds are brought into the sanctuary, giving all present a vivid impression that the winter is past, the flowers appear upon the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come." The service wholly given to the children. They recite, sing and pray. The churches are well filled on these occasions, which are signs of the present activity of Christion workers and a prophecy of

YES OR NO

A We'l-Known Physician, Who. Among Other Things, Is Noted for His Frankness.

No one ever heard Dr. E. Grewer use the phrase "I think" in his practice. The doctor is one of those frank, fearless, honest, positive men who never hesitate to say yes or no, as the case may require. "I can cure you" or "I cannot cure you," is his invariable decision after examination, and to this fact fact is attributable his remarkable record without failures. But it would be strange indeed if the doctor were not a more than usually successful practitioner. He has been surgeon-incide in more than one of the largest hospitals of this country, was lately Demonstrator of Physiology and Surgery at the Medico-Chirurgical College in Philadelphia, has been elected an honorary momber of the Medico-Chirurgical Association, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, etc., and is still a close student. is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, etc., and is still a close student.

A man with such a record could not fail to be a successful physician under any circumstances, but when backed by cautious, conservatism in expression, or,
to use a more popular phrase, the "besure-you're-right-then-go-ahead" system, it would be more than strange if failure evertock him. overtook him.

The Flour Awards

From the N. Y. Tribune, Nov. 1, 1805.

"CHICAGO, Oct. 31.-Fhe first official announcement of World's Fair diplomas on flour has been made. A medal has been awarded by the World's Fair judges to the flour manufactured by the Washburn, Crosby Co., in the great Washburn Flour Mills, Minneapolis. The committee reports the flour strong and pure, and entitles it to rank as first-class patent flour for family and bakers' nsa."
